ABOUT THE
TOM COUGHLIN JAY FUND FOUNDATION

The Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation helps keep families in their homes, food on the table, the lights on, and so much more when a family is tackling childhood cancer by providing financial, emotional, and practical support. The Jay Fund, the nonprofit organization of 2X Super Bowl winning head coach Tom Coughlin, was established in 1996 in the memory and spirit of the late Boston College football player, Jay McGillis, who lost his battle with leukemia. From diagnosis to recovery and beyond, the Jay Fund is part of the team, allowing parents to focus solely on their child’s well-being. The mission is to BE THERE for parents facing the unthinkable so they can BE THERE for their child.
